The general attitude of the French government is capsulized neatly by the following observation: Just as with the prison riots which swept France in late July, the specially trained CRS riot police arrive conveniently after the fracas was over.

Moscow's Friend at Chase Manhattan

Sept. 2 (IPS) — a Newsday dispatch August 16 reports in an article entitled "Chase Man More Envoy than Banker" that Chase Manhattan's representative in Moscow, Alfred Wentworth, is enjoying privileges not usually granted visiting U.S. businessmen. The reason for Wentworth's special status, muses Newsday, "may have something to do with David Rockefeller and his family."

IPS previously has reported how David Rockefeller has lulled the Soviet Oblomovs into restful dreams of detente protected by their special friendship with the Rockefeller family.

The article continues: "Rockefeller, Chase's chairman, admits that, 'to some extent, the Soviets have believed their own propaganda to the effect that a small group of families, including our own, really runs this country. Therefore, if they're going to have a relationship with the United States, they probably wanted to deal with the people who they thought really had the power.' "

As any real hope of detente has collapsed, the Soviets have seized on this "relationship" with the Rockefellers. The truth, however, is that detente always has been a cover for ever intensifying penetration of the Soviet bloc by Rockefeller capital.
