

Rockefeller 'Old Boys' in Global Terror Campaign

Sept. 22 (NSIPS) — Nelson Rockefeller, Henry Kissinger, and the "old boys" at the Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board (FIAB) and the CIA sent their global "Die Spinne" Nazi terror network on a new rampage this past week, assassinating former Allende cabinet minister Orlando Letelier in Washington, D.C. and stormtrooping through the streets of Greece.

In their attempt to sabotage the Third World's demands for debt moratorium and a new world economic order, Rocky and his "old boys" cronies had just previously deployed "Die Spinne" — the network of preserved Nazi war criminals — in the fascist Croatian hijacking episode; in further Falange war atrocities in the Middle East; in pirating a Soviet MIG 25 to Japan; in continuing murder of blacks in South Africa, and attempts to trigger a continental racial bloodbath; in new Argentine Anti-Communist Alliance (AAA) fascist assaults on revolutionaries, workers, and Jews; and in CIA-directed gusano assassination plots against pro-debt moratoria Third World leaders including Prime Ministers Manley of Jamaica and Forbes Burnham of Guyana, and Guyana's Foreign Minister Freds Wills.

According to high-level diplomatic sources, CIA operatives ordered the assassinations of the Third World leaders at a meeting of gusano (Cuban exile) groups held in Miami earlier this month. Miami-based gusanos most recently fired two shots into Will' moving car near his home in Georgetown, Guyana. Interrogation of a CIA-linked operative, working under the cover of an ABC journalist, bared U.S.-directed assassinations scheduled to occur in Canada where Manley and Burnham were to be enticed for speaking engagements.

Who are Rocky's Old Boys?

The Rockefeller family's "old boys" are the diehard fascists in the Rockefeller Financial Group and its private invisible government who not only have been running "Die Spinne" Nazi terror networks and the CIA for decades but are also all confirmed nuclear lunatics known as "Utopians" itching to lob some H-bombs on the USSR.

Anticipating an immediate opportunity to do just that, typical "old boy" John Swearingen — a director of Chase Manhattan Bank, Standard oil of Indiana, and the Hoover Institution on War, Peace, and Revolution — announced in an interview yesterday "There will definitely be another Arab oil boycott, because there will be another Mideast war. It will come in the next tendays, although the timetable may be a little off."

Suspecting that the "old boys" rampage will successfully precipitate just such a (losing) nuclear showdown with the Soviets, the Fabian "left" component of the Rockefellers' political intelligence apparatus, the "new boys" typefied by the Institute for Policy Studies crowd and the Washington Post, reacted with horrified alarm. The "new boys" — Letelier was one of their agents — erroneously believe there is a "democratic fascist "third way" between jackbooted Nazi terror and open declarations of war on one hand, and debt moratorium at the expense of the New York banks and U.S. participation in the new world economic order on the other. But since the dollar-based international monetary system is now irretrievably doomed, any policy based on continued dollar-debt collection must lead to U.S. economic chaos and quickly converge — in spite of its proponents' intentions — on general thermonuclear holocaust.

Grisly Story Coming Out

The ugly story of the Rockefeller-Old Boy global Nazi terror is just beginning to emerge in bits and pieces in the bourgeois press and several Communist Party papers.

Stern, a West German weekly magazine, blows the fact that the Russian MIG-25 defector pilot who landed in Japan was a CIA agent long involved in U.S. fascist penetration operations into Eastern Europe. The pre-planned flight was designed to destabilize the government of Japanese Prime Minister Miki which, along with Italy has been in the forefront of advanced sector support for the Sri Lanka debt moratorium declaration. Henry Kissinger's dire threats against the Japanese to force them to turn over the plane and pilot were further psywar destabilization moves.

In Greece, Rizospastis, paper of the pro-Moscow Greek Communist Party (KKE) last week ran banner headlines "Activation of Junta and Invisible Government." Rizospastis charges that "old boys" CIA agent William F. Buckley and former CIA Deputy Director Vernon Walters are coordinating a plot together with the U.S. Embassy and Chriske, the Greek neo-Nazi party set up by Rockefeller family West German agent Franz Joseph Strauss, to overthrow the Greek government and reinstall the fascist junta. The KKE exposes the conspirators' complicit in recent Nazi stormtrooper attacks on resistance commemoration rallies and their responsibility for providing the junta umbrella organization Chriske with arms caches uncovered in the countryside.

Upon his return to the U.S., Buckley wrote a syndicated column demanding that Greek socialist Andres Papandreou be immediately "ostracized" by his countrymen. Meanwhile, the West German magazine Der Spiegel earlier this week confirmed Rizospastis' charges that a Nazi coup attempt is in the works.

Rocky-Old Boys Strike at Home

Yesterday's assassination of Chilean exile and Transnational Institute official Orlando Letelier at the hands of Rockefeller and the FIAB Old Boys "Die Spinne" networks signalled that the insane Rockefeller is prepared to rub out his own "left" Fabian operatives if they don't go along with his international Nazi terror drive. Letelier himself was released from prison in 1974 by Rocky's Chilean junta following the intervention of Henry Kissinger. The Transnational Institute, a division of the Institute for Policy Studies, is financed by the Rockefeller family.

On the day before the assassination David Rockefeller's Wall Street Journal wrote an editorial specifically attacking Letelier by name for opposing "old boy" economist Milton Freedman's "economic solution" for Chile!

The terrified IPS left cover agents — their hands bloody with thousands of anti-communist "left" international terrorist operations of their own in behalf of the Rothschilds and Rockefellers — accused DINA, (the Chilean secret police) of the crime but, of course, covered from exposing the controllers and directors of this mere branch of "Die Spinne." Instead like good Fabians, they dutifully marched to the United Nations to "protest" against the Chilean junta to try to divert UN members from the real issue of immediate unilateral debt moratorium.

Actually the incipient war between the two Atlanticist political intelligence networks was telegraphed by the Washington Post in several factional articles and editorials over the past week. The Post is owned by Katherine Meyer Graham from Meyer banking family which controls Lazard Frères and is partners with the French Rothschilds. The Meyers, who have a big stake in the Institute for Policy Studies, hope to survive as a financier group and prevent debt moratorium by cooptive "negotiations" with the Third World and Europe. They oppose Rocky's psychotic self-destructive Nazi terror methods and war policy.

Last week the Post editorialized against "the Nazi Croatian hijackers" and labelled the hijacking the kind of act which could rapidly escalate into "general war." They followed this with a direct attack on Leo Cherne, the "old boy" head of the FIAB, scandalizing him for losing a green book full of government secrets.

By Sept. 19 the Post was completely freaked out over the Rockefeller-Old Boys global Nazi-terror campaign and in a Sunday lead editorial "George Bush and the Old Boy Net" warns that nine congressional committees now have oversight over the CIA and that "as they (the CIA) dream of projects to singe a dictators beard or blow up a prime minister ... they will have to think about how it would look in testimony before the Congress." The Post continues in its warning to Bush and the Administration to crack down on Rocky's mad drive for Third World destabilizations and assassinations: "Congressional oversight could after all be a means of bringing public opinion to bear, however hypothetically or subconsciously, on these controversial and sensitive activities in the formative, planning stage."

Rocky and the "old boys" responded on Sept. 21 to these threats with a bomb.

As New Solidarity has documented, and as the USLP pamphlet "Carter and the Party of International Terrorism" demonstrates, it was the Nazi collaborator Rockefeller who during and after World War II, took over, relocated and maintained virtually intact the Nazi and SS international networks. This was accomplished through the secret Standard Oil-IG Farben cartel formed in 1929; through Anglo-American political intelligence agent Wilhelm Canaris — who ran the Abwehr, through Nelson Rockefeller's own Office of Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs (CIAA) which collaborated with the Nazis in the Western Hemisphere — through ITT which financed the Nazis and provided them communications networks, and through the European operation of spy Allen Dulles whose Office of Strategic Services (OSS) was a front for Chase National Bank, Dillon, Reade and Co., First National City Bank, and other Rockefeller banks.

Today these Rockefeller Nazi networks ("Die Spinne") are organized into the so-called World Anti-Communist League and maintained by (in particular) the governments of South Korea, Taiwan, Spain, Chile, and Argentina in full collaboration with the Rockefeller invisible government.

The "Old Boys" network is composed primarily of the FIAB crowd including John Connally's Texas interests and quack scientist Edward Teller; a group congregating around Leo Cherne of Freedom House (an FIAB publishing front); the right-wing social democrats of the AFL-CIO like Cold Warriors Jay Lovestone and Lane Kirkland and including Daniel Moynihan; and the Rockefeller Financial Group's right-wing West Coast network centered around the McCone-Bechtel combine, Standard Oil of California, Wells Fargo Bank, and the Hoover Institute at Stanford University.

The makeup of the Hoover Institute — a think tank which includes most of the country's "professional" anti-communists like Sidney Hook and Stepan Possanyi — demonstrates the nature of the financier-industrialist faction that backs Rockefeller's and Kissinger's illegal, dirty tricks around the world. The Hoover Board of Overseers includes Chase Manhattan directors Jeremiah Milbank and John Swearingen; Hobart Lewis, chairman of Readers Digest (a journal which includes Eugene Methvin and former Defense Secretary Melvin Laird as officers); Richard Mellon Scaife of the Pittsburg Mellons; Gilbert Humphrey of the huge, Cleveland-based Humphrey-Hanna finance and industry complex; former CIA director John McCone (also of McCone-Bechtel, ITT and Standard Oil of California); David Packard of Standard of California and Hewlett-Packard. (His partner William Hewlett is on the Board of Directors of Chase Manhattan.) The Rothschild Family inputs into the Hoover institute through Overseers James Black and Harry Bodman, both partners in the Lehman Brothers investment house.

It was the Hoover Institute which worked in conjunction with Nelson Rockefeller in 1956 to create the Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board—ostensibly to help the President oversee the CIA and its covert operations — but actually to help Rockefeller interface the CIA with his privately controlled intelligence operations including "Die Spinne."

It is Possanyi of the Hoover Institute, who is presently holding secret meetings with other "old boys" to plot a rerun of the J. Robert Oppenheimer Security risk" panic against the Labor Committee-initiated Fusion Energy Foundation and the U.S. scientific community working on controlled thermonuclear fusion research (see exclusive report below).

This Old Boy network has complete control of Jimmy Carter and the Democratic Party from the top down: through the rightwing social democrats who maintain the semblance of the party's alliance with labor, to top Carter advisors like Paul Nitze of the Hoover Institute-linked investment bank, Dillon Reade.

This is the same network which is trying to control President Ford and the pro-Ford independent industrial interests based mainly in Chicago. Right now the Old Boys are moving to box in Ford, and get him behind Lower Manhattan's program by pressuring him on the left with "Rockefeller Liberals" like Sen. Jacob Javits and Rep. Charles Mathias, and directly by the FIAB-Hoover crowd on the right.
