

EIR Contents

Departments

- 36 Entente Bestiale
London terrorist meeting cancelled, but the fight has just begun.
- 38 Report from Paris
Papal visit unleashes mad dogs.
- 39 Report from Bonn
Signs of sanity in foreign policy.
- 72 Editorial
Keep the heat on Ridge.

Photo credits: Cover, Bibliothèque Nationale. Page 20, Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division. Page 43, Courtesy of AFL-CIO. Page 51, EIRNS/Stuart Lewis. Page 62 (inset), Courtesy of Sessions campaign Website.

Correction: An editorial error on p. 32 of last week's issue, in the article "U.S. Attack on Iraq Plays Right Into British Hands," introduced a reference to "Margaret Bush's Desert Storm." We hope that our readers took it either as a joke or a Freudian slip, and were not unduly confused.

Books

- 42 U.S. labor movement revived as a real social movement
America Needs a Raise: Fighting for Economic Security and Social Justice, by John J. Sweeney with David Kusnet.
- 45 Britain's legacy to Thailand: 150 years of Dope, Inc.
Thailand: Economy and Politics, by Pasuk Phongpaichit and Chris Baker.

Economics

- 4 European financial elite prepares anti-dollar move
The Bank for International Settlements is launching the largest expansion in its history, to overthrow the "dollar era."
- 6 China opens another rail 'Great Project'
The Beijing-Kowloon railroad is "ready to roll," in the latest expansion of China's infrastructure.
- 7 Currency Rates
- 8 Mexico's new pact with IMF shores up foreign reserves with drug dollars
- 10 City of London dumps De Benedetti from Italy's computer-maker, Olivetti
- 12 Business Briefs