Campus Watch

<http://www.campus-watch.org>

Created and sponsored by Philadelphia-based Middle East Forum (MEF), Campus Watch was launched on Sept. 18, 2001, listing “dossiers” on 8 professors and 14 universities, now expanded to 21 universities. Encourages students and faculty members to provide names of Middle Eastern studies professors who criticize Israel. MEF spun off from the Foreign Policy Research Institute (FPRI), which houses some of the leading right-wing Zionist networks in the U.S. foreign policy apparatus. MEF publishes Middle East Quarterly, promoting Islam as an enemy image and embracing Huntington’s policy.

Daniel Pipes—director of FPRI (1986-93); director of MEF; columnist for Jerusalem Post and New York Post; member, AEI’s New Atlantic Initiative; author of a book on conspiracies that slanders Lyndon LaRouche. Khalid Duran—MEF editorial board member who worked with Steven Emerson to produce “Jihad in America,” for the Public Broadcasting System, promoting the idea of Islam as the enemy. Martin Kramer—Middle East Quarterly editor, Tel Aviv University. Patrick Clawson—director of research of the pro-Likud Washington Institute for Near East Policy.

Dr. Lynne Cheney and The Pollard Gang

Vice Presidential wife Lynne Cheney is a hard-core neo-conservative, closely linked to the Israeli agents at the American Enterprise Institute, including AEI’s “universal fascist,” Michael Ledeen, and Richard Perle, the Iraq war’s chief chicken-hawk running the Defense Policy Board. Both came under scrutiny during the 1980s investigation of Israeli spy, U.S. citizen Jonathan Jay Pollard.

The “Cheney family circle” includes Michael Ledeen and his wife Barbara; the “granddaddies” of neo-conservatism; Irving Kristol and his wife Gertrude Himmelfarb; and also their son, William Kristol. Dick Cheney’s contribution to this neo-conservative coven is his chief of staff, Lewis “Scooter” Libby, a protégé of Deputy Defense Secretary Paul Wolfowitz. Libby was the attorney for Wall Street fraudster Marc Rich, who arranged his Presidential pardon after massive payoffs to the right-wing Israeli lobby in 2000.

Lynne Cheney has a gaggle of close female associates who stand out as Washington’s leading McCarthyites. She Cheney has long-admired Himmelfarb—also known as “Himmler-farb” for her neo-con thought-policing—and Cheney brought her in as a top adviser when Cheney was chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities (1986-93). The female bonding is one of the tracks through which Himmler-farb’s son William Kristol’s study on American Empire, for the Project on the New American Century (PNAC), became the September 2002 White House National Security Strategy document.

In 1992, Barbara Ledeen recruited Cheney to the Independent Women’s Forum (IWF). Ledeen has been associated since the early 1980s, with the terrorist plot against Jerusalem’s Temple Mount by right-wing Israelis and Christian Zionists associated with the U.S. neo-conservatives. Commentators say IWF “is neither independent nor a forum.” It is an appendage of the network of foundations (see Profile) that finance the right-wing Christian Zionist/Jabotinskyite organizations. IWF has received more than $2 million from the Bradley/Olin/Scaife and Smith Richardson nexus, and includes Wendy Gramm, wife of Sen. Phil Gramm, who brought us the notorious Enron deregulation swindle; and Labor Secretary Elaine Chao, wife of Sen. Mitch McConnell, another Iraq war fanatic.
