

Coca Troops Use Soros $$

Bolivia's Evo Morales is a key figure in George Soros's international drug-legalization and narco-terrorist support apparatus, through his membership in the Andean Council of Coca Leaf Producers (CAPHC) which Soros finances. The CAPHC also shares personnel and projects with the Soros-financed Andean Commission of Jurists, one of the leading drug-legalization lobbies in Ibero-America. Functioning as a de facto branch of Human Rights Watch/Americas, the Commission targets enemies of the drug cartels for prosecution on charges of human rights violations. Soros gave HRW/Americas its start-up capital, and has poured money into it ever since.

CAPHC's self-proclaimed mission is to turn the hundreds of thousands of poor families growing coca in Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador and Colombia, and currently enslaved to the drug cartels, into a unified armed insurrectionary force to defend drug growing and trafficking in the region as matters of "national identity" and "human rights," as Morales is doing. CAPHC operates primarily in Bolivia and Peru, but coordinates closely with "coca groups" from Brazil, Colombia and Ecuador.