

LaRouche: Hit on India Was Strategic Attack

In an analysis entitled “The Strategic Significance of the Hit on India,” which appeared in the July 21 EIR, Lyndon LaRouche identified the Mumbai bombings as a marker for a new phase of global crisis, being provoked by Synarchist financial forces. We quote from the opening paragraphs of that report:

“This was no ordinary sort of ‘terrorist incident’; the characteristics of the attack themselves bespeak the hand of a leading strategic power.

“The admirers of Vice-President Cheney’s strategic impulses might be pleased by the intention expressed in these events in India, since what is being served is the same warfare policy expressed by Cheney’s wicked partnership with Israel’s Benjamin Netanyahu. Worse, although Cheney’s conspiring with Netanyahu has been the obvious motive for the presently escalating state of warfare launched, in several directions, by Israel, Cheney himself is merely a disposable pawn in an imperial game played by forces operating from a much higher level than the current U.S. Presidency, levels higher than Cheney’s immediate master, George P. Shultz.

“With the combination of this strategic attack on India, and the continuing actions of Dick Cheney and his accomplice, Netanyahu, in Southwest Asia, a signaled, actually global threat was delivered, in effect, to those assembling for the ‘G-8’ summit in Russia now. Like the June 28, 1914 assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife at Sarajevo, the Mumbai incident of this past Tuesday has been recognized, in relevant circles in India and elsewhere, as the intended detonator of a global strategic crisis. This is, in fact, a crisis which must be compared with the situation on the verge of the two so-called ‘world wars’ of the Twentieth Century; unless the present threat is promptly reversed, the outcome will be vastly worse than anything experienced in the two ‘world wars’ of the preceding century, but of an essentially different type than either of those two great wars.”

It is from this standpoint that our Indian correspondent, Ramtanu Maitra, undertook to unravel the international dimensions of the “local” terrorist organizations on the Subcontinent, starting with the historically identifiable culprit, the British Empire.—Nancy Spannaus
