Rothschild-Bacharach and Schwab have a common male ancestor from 15 generations ago.

Schwab's earliest ancestor from near Basel, Switzerland—Count of Nemerow Ulrich Schwab, Knights Hospitallers commander (1298-1315) helped Pope Clement V: (1.) consolidate Habsburg power, (2.) destroy the Knights Templar that was founded by Raymond of St. Gilles (ref. the Holy Lance of Antioch), and (3.) transferred Templar bank consistories to the Knights Hospitallers—now the Vatican Bank, Knights of Malta, Bank of England and its spawn.

Their self-anointed Frankist "elites" created communism to control the populations they enslave.

Their offshore bank accounts must be seized before their "Great Reset," "Internet of Things" and biowarfare plans fully strangle humanity.

The genealogists at Ancestry, My Heritage, WikiTree, Geni are hiding the Schwab-Rothschild-Bacharach blood ties with "private" redactions.

Ancestry.com is owned by The Blackstone Group, Stephen A. Schwarzman, British Pilgrims Society, co-founded by Lords Lionel & Walter Rothschild.

(February 20, 2022)—Klaus Schwab's blood relationship to the Rothschilds (real name Bacharach) reaches back to the 13th century.

According to numerous Schwab ancestries, his original ancestor was Ulrich Schwab,¹ Commander of the Knights Hospitallers (1298-1315), and first Count of Nemerow (Germany).²

Note: Four Warburgs were subsequent Counts of Nemerow. Ulrich Schwab purchased the Nemerow property for the Knights Hospitaller Commerdery from

Figure 1: Woodcut Arms. (1283). Burchard von Schwanden, the year he was made a Teutonic Knight. Von Schwanden was Ulrich Schwab's commander in the hastily-manned 3rd Crusade, which he abandoned. He was also a Habsburg and Papal sycophant. He supported and perhaps led the Pope's reluctant destruction of the Knights Templars in order for the Knights Hospitaller to acquire their banking assets that survive today as the Bank of England, Knights of Malta and Vatican Bank. Ulrich Schwab's home appears to have been near Basel, Switzerland in the nearby village of Phaffans, France. In 1290, his fellow Count of Buchsee (Canton of Bern), Burchard von Schwanden, was ordered by the Pope Nicholas IV to reinforce the crusaders (in the 3rd Crusade, 1189-92), who were under siege by the Mamluk Muslims at Acre. Acre was the Teutonic Knight headquarters.

Von Schwanden raised an army hastily that evidently included Ulrich Schwab. Acre fell, but not before von Schwanden had abandoned his command, high tailed it back to Switzerland, quite the Teutonic Knights and joined the Knights Hospitallers. Histories are silent about why he left and changed his allegiance to the Knights Hospitallers.

"The chief cause of the ruin of the Templars was their extraordinary wealth," and the King Philip IV (in conspiracy with Pope Clement) reasoned that he must put them to death since "he could not get the honey unless he burned the bees."³ The almost overnight beneficiaries were the Knights Hospitallers, whereby usury started.

Note: On Oct. 13, 1307—Friday 13th, 17 years later, then Pope Clement, in league with King Philip IV, arrested the Templars and began the process of turning over their property and non-usurious securities instruments to the Knights Hospitallers. King Philip was said to have been livid after the Templars would not loan him more money to forgive his war debt. He ordered Templar Grand Master James de Molay to be burned at the stake in order to get at the Templar assets. These confiscations included much Crusader soldier and pilgrim gold and silver in their consistories. Today, the Hospitallers operate in Rome as the usury-dependent Knights of Malta in cooperation with the Vatican Bank and under the control of The Bank of England (British Pilgrims Society—progenitor of Frankish Demonic Imperial British Corporatism).

Schwabs, Bacharachs and Rothschilds are Khazarian, not Judaeen.

Recent DNA mapping shows that the Bacharach/Rothschilds and Schwabs are highly likely to be descendants of non-semitic Khazarian Jewish semi-nomadic traders from the Khazarian Empire \(ca. 650-950\) steppes of

Mayer Amschel Rothschild is notoriously recognized as the progenitor of the Rothschild banking business. At the same time as he was funding, by the admission of even the Rothschild Archives, the Hessian soldiers²¹ (from his region) to fight for the British in America's war for independence, he also was funding the Sabbatian²² Frankists²³ and forming the Illuminati as a Jewish crypto-Freemasonry²⁴—as vehicles to expand his banking business into populations he was otherwise blocked from penetrating as a Jewish person who was also promoting immorality, debauchery, incest, pedophilia, spiritism, necrophilia, lying and murder as good for business.²⁵ In short, he created his own society of secrets and debauchery to secure permanently compromised customers.

Sabbatian Frankism, manifestation of the usury demon.

In about 1751, Jacob Frank (1726-91) claimed to be the Jewish messiah as the reincarnation of an earlier messianic claimant Shabbetai Zvi (1626–76). Jacob was the founder of the antirabbinical Frankists, or Zoharists.

Jacob Frank held that certain elect persons are exempt from moral law. This sect abandoned Judaism for a “higher Torah” (Jewish Law) based on the Zohar, which was the most important work in the Kabbala, the Jewish mystical movement. Hence its members are also called themselves Zoharists.

Jacob Frank was a proponent of an antinomian anarchist approach that rejected all the prohibitions and restrictions of Jewish law, including the laws of incest.

²⁵ Anti-semitism! propaganda is the great cover story for Sabbatian Frankist debauchery and hegemony. The fact is, these people are not Hebrew or semites, they are non-semitic Khazarians who have coopted moral Jewry.

Frankists were/are master infiltrators. They were/are masters of living a double life. They practiced sexual orgiastic ecstasy as a sacrament ala Jeffrey Epstein.

After Jacob Frank was imprisoned for thirteen years in the fortress monastery of Częstochowa, Poland, he decided that he and his followers should, on the surface, convert to the predominant religion of their region. Then, they should secretly continue their debauchery with his messianic blessing. In business that meant: say whatever it took to get the deal even if it meant breaking those promises when expedient. Hence, their tangle of lies today.

Nathan Mayer Rothschild and his issue funded Jacob Frank and his raunchy followers.

Hiding Klaus' demon.

Tellingly, genealogy vendors are currently censoring references to Klaus Schwab. All other Schwab generations reaching back to the 14th century are otherwise available.

If our best-efforts assessment of the genealogical record is inaccurate, it is Klaus Schwab's burden to clarify. Otherwise, our best information concludes that Schwab and Rothschild are distant Bacharach blood cousins.

These Rothschild and Schwab public figures and their genealogical protectors have a moral duty to stop hiding their past.

To reiterate, in 1298, Klaus' earliest ancestor was Count Sir Ulrich Schwab. He was the first Count of Nemerow and was elevated to a knight commander of the Knights Hospitallers (Order of St. John). See links above.

Ulrich Schwab was elevated to commander after the Hospitallers in the 3rd Crusade had lost their headquarters in Acre (now Israel) in 1291 to the Mamluk Muslims—the successors of the Seljuks that included Muslim Khazarians.

²⁶ Klaus Schwab. \(2009\). The World Economic Forum [aka-Davos], A Partner in Shaping History, The First 40 Years 1971-2010, Ref. W100119H. World Economic Forum (WEF).

Ulrich very likely participated in this battle under the command of Bern, Switzerland patrician Burchard von Schwanden (d. 1310) .

Von Schwanden (meaning to “thin out” or “disappear”) abandoned his command in Acre and fled back to German, joined the Knights Hospitallers and became their commander in Buchsee (a Canton of Bern).

Just seven years later, Ulrich Schwab was knighted by the Hospitallers as commander over Nemerow where he became the first count, even though he had lived in Pfaffans, France just 40 miles from Bern. Since such elevations among aristocrats usually involve a battle story (which are generally fabricated), his alleged soldiering in Acre is the evident reason.

Then, this story takes a fateful twist.

In 1289, just a year before leaving for Acre, Von Schwanden left for Rome where, in the presence of the Pope, Von Schwanden again petitioned the Pope to acknowledge Rudolf von Habsburg as the sole king of all of Germany and Austria. Evidently, his and Ulrich’s quick rise with the ranks of the Hospitallers was part of the plan to grow the Pope’s power and benefit the emerging Hapsburg Empire. Indeed, in 1314, the Pope seized all Knights Templar banks and consistories and turned them over to the Knights Hospitallers. Since the Templars had not charged interest on debt, such practices evidently began under the Hospitallers.

More than 600 years of demonic activity was ushered in by usury.

This history sees the Schwabs ensconced in more than 600-years of demonic world history involving the first to last Hapsburg, controlled by the Vatican who destroyed the Knights Templar and gave all their assets to the Knights Hospitallers. Those Knights are now called the Knights of Malta today (full name: Military Hospitaller Order of Saint John of Jerusalem, of Rhodes and of Malta) controlled by both the Pope in Rome and the British monarch in London.

Postscript:

The Spear of Destiny, also known as the Holy Lance, is in Christian tradition the spear that the Roman soldier Longinus thrust into the side of Jesus (33 A.D.) as he hung on the cross.

"Then came the soldiers and broke the legs of the first and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side and forthwith came out blood and water." —John 19: 32–34 KJV

Christian knights discovered the Holy Lance at Antioch during the First Crusade in 1098. That Crusade was commanded by the subsequent founder of the Knights Templar, Raymond of St. Gilles (or Toulouse). One of his monks, Peter Bartholomew, had a series of dreams where the Apostle Thomas spoke to him and told him where the Holy Lance was located. The sight of the sacred object that had been buried under the altar in the Church of St. Peter so inspired the starving Christian soldiers that they rallied and routed the Seljuk Muslims who outnumbered them five to one. Energized by that evident miracle, they marched on to liberate Jerusalem with the Holy Lance stanchion leading their marches. This event is well recorded by multiple First Crusade chroniclers.

From that time forth, according to legend, whoever claims the spear and solves its secret holds the destiny of the world in his hands for good or evil. For example, Adolf Hitler was obsessed with possessing the Holy Lance to secure his Third Reich. Indeed, his first act on Mar. 12, 1938 upon seizing Vienna (the Anschluss Österreichs) was to dissolve the Hapsburg Monarchy and confiscate the Imperial Regalia that included the Hapsburg lance.

Curiously, altogether missing from the histories about Count Ulrich Schwab and his Knights Hospitaller conspirators is the importance that Popes and Kings alike placed on having possession of the Holy Lance.

These histories clearly reveal popes and princes vying for the title of Holy Roman Emperor and King of Germany. In this mix, Popes claimed power over local governments. Indeed, the newly-minted post-3rd Crusade Knights Hospitaller Count Ulrich Schwab, and his commander, Count Burchard von Schwanden, were strong proponents of making the Hapsburgs the King of a united Germany.

In short, the Popes wanted supreme power and the money to cement it. In counterpoint, the kings and princes wanted the same thing.

Without funds, neither popes nor kings could secure their control. Hence, they coveted the wealth that had been accrued by the Knights Templar.

Since 1118, the Knights Templar had set up banks to manage the funds and property of Crusaders, many of who died in battle and their property bequeathed to the Pope, on paper. But, in reality, the Templars, as the stewards of these properties, started loaning money against these assets using non-interest bearing instruments. Once those assets were encumbered by such loans, the Pope's effective control of those funds was minimal. In addition, the Popes wanted to use "court Jews" to loan money with interest since they were Biblically prohibited from usury.

The Holy Lance of Antioch, we believe, was never given to the Pope after the death of Raymond of St. Gilles on Feb. 28, 1105, but rather, was entrusted to his son, Alfonso Jordan who had been baptized with the Lance in the River Jordan, and his pious wife, Elvira of Castile. We believe they took the Holy Lance of Antioch home with them to Toulouse.

This holy relic, perhaps the most revered in Christendom, was universally believed to give blessing on all who venerated it. It is inconceivable that Alfonso and his mother did not have priests bless Class 1 relic copies of the original lance before they returned home.

The circumstances of Count Burchard von Schwanden's inexplicable departure from Acre, abandoning his army, appears to be related to a potential discovery of one of these Class 1 relic copies of the Holy Lance.

With this blessed lance in his possession, it appears that Pope Clement V made his move on the Templars to seize their assets.

Once these tasks were completed, the Papacy was positioned to cut a deal with whatever prospective monarch would agree that he was the supreme ruler of the world, and that they would protect the papacy.

On Aug. 26, 1346, Charles IV was crowned Holy Roman Emperor in the presence of the lance likely brought to him from Acre in the Third Crusade, possibly by Schwab's commander Count Burchard von Schwanden. This coronation was the consequence of an alliance between Charles IV's father and Pope Clement VI, perhaps even with an aging Ulrich Schwab looking on (d. unknown).

Evidently, Pope Clement VI believed with his lance and the Templar wealth in hand, he would empower the Hapsburgs, that were not dethroned until 1938—592 years later—when Hitler seized the Hapsburg lance in the Anschluss Österreichs.

The bad guys do not hold the Holy Lance of Antioch; good people do

The Holy Lance of Antioch is held today, we believe, but not by the Hapsburgs, the World Economic Forum, Klaus Schwab, Henry Kissinger, James W. Breyer, Bill Gates, Prince Charles, Lord Mark Malloch-Brown, George Soros or Evelyn Rothschild.

Rather, it is held by patriots working for a moral, more spiritual future for humanity.

Most especially, they want a money system not based on demonic usury.
