

Founder John Adams wrote Abigail, his beloved wife, that he was “gloomy” about the Treaty of Paris that ended the Revolutionary War in 1783.

Why?

It is because pagan Babylonian Radhanite fake Jewish British bankers (the Synagogue of Satan)<sup>1</sup> were allowed to retain economic control in America

- The American Revolution formally ended on Sep. 03, 1783 with the Treaty of Paris.<sup>2</sup>
- Signing for the American Colonies were Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, and John Jay.
- Signing for the British was David Hartley.

Figure 1: John Adams (1778): “The moment the idea is admitted into society that property is not as sacred as the laws of God, and that there is not a force of law and public justice to protect it, anarchy and tyranny commence. If ‘Thou shalt not covet’ and ‘Thou shalt not steal’ were not commandments of heaven, they must be made inviolable precepts in every society before it can be civilized or made free.

Nip the shoots of arbitrary power in the bud is the only maxim which can ever preserve the liberties of any people.”

John Adams wrote to his wife Abigail the next day that he was gloomy about the Treaty that he had negotiated “these Six Months for nothing”<sup>3</sup> and three months later, in London, obliquely told Abigail that the British banks had won the “Golden Fleese” [sic] in the commerce treaty he was ordered to arrange.<sup>4</sup>

Why was Adams gloomy?

The actual words of the Treaty tell us why.

While Article 1 affirmed American government sovereignty.

—70 words.

But, Articles 4, 5 and 6 preserved all British credit and property claims and rights throughout America.

—632 words.

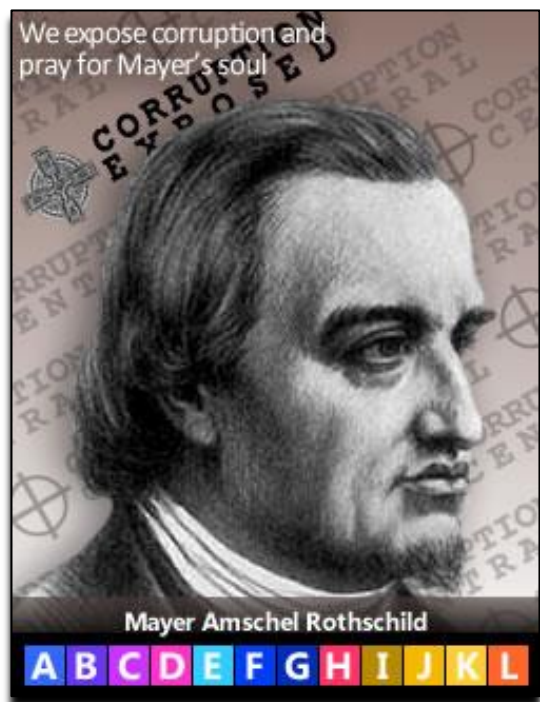

At that very same time, in Frankfurt, Hesse, Germany, the fake Jewish German-British Babylonian Radhanite merchant-banker demon Mayer Amschel Rothschild (1744-1812) who had funded the Hessians said:<sup>5</sup>

“Let me issue and control a nation’s money and I care not who writes the laws.”

—Mayer Amschel Rothschild (1744-1812)<sup>6</sup>

In other words, British banks and their American counterparts preserved all their controls over American property and commerce, trade and currency via their opium and slave trade control over Boston and New York banks like the opium credits clearing house Suffolk Bank (1818).<sup>7</sup>

American reliance on British credit was widespread. Private debt to British banks was common to all classes of Virginia society.

British Spy No. 7 Alexander Hamilton had just formed America's first bank, the Bank of North America (1781).<sup>8</sup>

Hamilton's bank was heavily financed by Bank of England interlocks in the British East India Company, Hope & Co (Amsterdam), London Treasury, Boston Brahmins, the Rothschilds, Barings, John Barker Church (aka John Carter) and London Assurance Company.<sup>9</sup>

Adams knew British Crown-chartered corporations would (and have) continued to dominate the world, including America:

Within just a few years, Alexander Hamilton, British Spy No. 7, founded three more banks funded by his British banking partners:<sup>10</sup>

1. (Already founded then) Bank of North America (1781), now Wells Fargo;
2. Bank of New York (1784), now BNY Mellon;
3. First Bank of the United States (1791), now BNY Mellon, Citizens, HSBC, Barings and Rothschild; and
4. Manhattan Bank (1799), now JPMorgan Chase, Rothschild.

John Adams was understandably gloomy about the Treaty of Paris.

John Adams knew that British banks maintained control (the “Golden Fleese”) [sic].

John Adams knew that America never won the American Revolution.
