A Wall Street Journal article back in April 2022 called US aircraft carriers "sitting duck" targets, adding:

The inconvenient truth is that our Navy has 12 carrier groups and all are now obsolete.

The fact is that modern warfare has passed the US Navy by, with old conventional hunks of steel that cost so much and take so long to make are now relics of last century warfare. Painful proof in point is last weekend's alleged attacks of the USS Eisenhower in the Red Sea when the Houthis in Yemen claimed they damaged the aircraft carrier with several missile hits. Though the US denies this as "terrorist propaganda" citing claims it was AI-generated, according to Gordon Duff's inteldrop.org website's Monday June 3rd post, the carrier may have actually suffered at least surface damage with loss of life:

Despite fake videos, and a well-orchestrated coverup across social media orchestrated by the comedy team of Musk and Zuskstein, the truth is out, the USS Eisenhower is still under float but leaving the region under serious damage now to be scrapped.

On Hal Turner's intel website on Wednesday June 5th, aerial photos depict what appears to be clear damage of the USS Eisenhower deck parked in port, with the added commentary:

The heretofore believed-to-be-untouchable Aircraft Carrier seems to have been touched; and by guys in the desert, wearing sandals and dirty rags on their heads!

The Houthi spokesman Yahya Saree claimed that the very real drone and missile attacks on the aircraft carrier and destroyer the USS Gravely were in retaliation for Friday May 31st US and UK airstrikes in Yemen that killed 16 Yemenis and injured 42. Tensions and stakes are rising every day in both Europe and the Middle East.

The Associated Press on Saturday, June 1st reported:

U.S. Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin signed the order last week to extend the four ships' deployment [at least another month] for a second time, rather than bring the carrier, the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower, and its three warships home. The other ships in the strike group are the USS Philippine Sea, a cruiser, and two destroyers, the USS Gravely and the USS Mason. All together they include about 6,000 sailors.

The US is pretending no harm has come to the carrier or the destroyer, hoping to simply cover up the plausible truth that missile damage to the US Navy sitting ducks never happened, that the fleet is still patrolling and intercepting enemy drones and missiles protecting both commercial and allied military vessels in the Sea of Aden and Red Sea, as if nothing happened... very typical. Out of sight, out of mind.

Braindead's permissive, anything goes policy toward Israel's blatant genocide continues a parallel course. In the aftermath of the nightmarish fiery attack on May 26th at the Rafah refugee camp, melting scores of both tents and human flesh, and the ensuing IDF Rafah ground invasion, the White House only acknowledges "an uptick" of Israeli military activity. Six days later Associated Press claims:

Still, Biden administration officials say Israel has avoided massive attacks on what had been thickly crowded neighborhoods of Rafah and kept strikes more limited and targeted than earlier in its nearly 8-month-old war with Hamas.

The whole world is appalled at the disgusting bloodthirst by the monsters in Israel, while

Braindead insists no red line has been crossed. It's despicable, deplorable and preposterous to even witness as the entire world sees the genocidal pariahs dig their heels in, pretending no international laws have been violated. Recall a month ago when Biden said he would withhold weapons and bombs if the Butcher launched an all-out assault on Rafah, On May 9th, Biden said:

If they go into Rafah, I'm not supplying the weapons.

Then within several days, Braindead reneged as the coward and sent more bombs. During this election year knowing that virtually everyone in the US government is bought, bribed, blackmailed and extorted by Israel and its higher paygrade founding masters from the City of London, no one has the moral courage to stand up and do the right thing. This moment in time in my opinion stands as an all-time low point for both the United States and Israel during my lifetime. I have never seen such evil go unpunished, as if no force on the planet has the strength or courage to stop this hell being diabolically played out. And then quibbled excuses and blind face lies are feebly aired to make it okay to look the other way and pretend the bloodbath isn't really happening, and still no real consequences. It's almost as if a disease of weakness and cowardice has afflicted humanity to such a degree that we simply are passively awaiting God's intervention, or more apt God's wrathful punishment.

On Saturday June 1st, another Associated Press article reported that on Friday May 31st Biden said:

Israel has offered Hamas a cease-fire and hostage release deal that would unfold over three phases, declaring it was time to end the fighting in Gaza and that Hamas is 'no longer capable' of carrying out another large-scale attack on Israel.

Yet this too seems like more like infantile wishful thinking, as if pretending hard enough will suddenly bring peace so Braindead can increase his election chances. This game of charades is so cynically pathetic. Braindead's trying to apply undue pressure on both Israel and Hamas to accept a deal, do the hostage/prisoner swap and call an end to the bloody mess. But then as always, the Butcher upends Biden's wishful thinking fantasy, claiming it's not enough even to get whatever Israeli hostages home, the war will not end until every last Hamas militant is dead, an unrealistic, impossible task. But then by deliberate design, that's how this wartime prime minister set it up in order to stay in power at all cost, keeping the war going. The Butcher obviously is showing his true colors and doesn't give a shit about his hostages.

Netanyahu is receiving pressure from his rightwing Nazi war cabinet to not let up, anything less than full bore genocide is conceding to terrorists. If Netanyahu signs the ceasefire deal, his National Security Minister Itamar Ben-Gvir and Finance Minister Bezalel Smotrich threatened already to disband his coalition government which would be the end of Bibi's political life. So with everything to lose, he figures he must holdout, with lots of people's lives hanging precariously in the balance. After Biden in desperation laid out the three-phase ceasefire proposal on Monday, Bibi haltingly responded:

[Israelis] reserve the right to return to war.

Now that another ceasefire fantasy has stalled and hit the wall, US National Security Council spokesman John Kirby kisses Israel's higher paygrade ass:

This wasn't about jamming the prime minister, the war cabinet. This was about laying bare for the public to see how well and how faithfully and how assertively the Israelis came up with a new proposal. It shows how much they really want to get this done.

Linda Thomas-Greenfield, the US ambassador in the UN, is pressuring 14 Security Council members to sign onto the resolution, Biden is asking Qatar deal broker to pressure Hamas, national security advisor Jake Sullivan is leaning on his Turkish counterpart to pressure Hamas into the deal. Braindead is even pushing his G7 pals to endorse the deal, and they put out the statement:

We call on Hamas to accept this deal, that Israel is ready to move forward with, and we urge countries with influence over Hamas to help ensure that it does so.

When Time interviewed Biden on May 28th, asking if Netanyahu is stalling the war for his own political reasons, Biden admitted:

There is every reason for people to draw that conclusion.

Then on Tuesday June 4th, again asked if Netanyahu is playing politics with the Gaza war, with Bibi still not accepting Biden's May 31st peace proposal, Braindead walked back his earlier statement nervous to further piss off the higher paygrade Israeli Butcher, so his lame answer was:

I don't think so. He's trying to work out the serious problem that he has.

Now a week later still without a ceasefire, it's make-or-break time for this lame-brain dead regime, running out of time to finally put something, anything together that doesn't humiliatingly fall apart like everything else this imbecile batch touches. The Braindead crew know that with the Democratic Presidential Convention to nominate Biden coming up soon two months away in August, and the November election less than 5 months away, Biden knows he better have Gaza war over or his political chances are worth near zero. So maybe facing that reality, maybe he is using no more weapons to Israel as leverage to pressure the Butcher to make the deal, even with his war cabinet threatening to break up his coalition government. It's crunch time in the Middle East.

Killing Hezbollah soldiers near the Israeli northern border in southern Lebanon with white phosphorus airstrikes, that's the Butcher's way of quickly expanding the war. But it's also the Butcher's way of setting up Israel to be wiped off the map because Hezbollah is not Hamas, it's a much stronger military than the IDF. And has all the support and logistics from Iran... like I said, crunch time in the Middle East.

The US government has never ever appeared so weak as today. This bumbling Braindead regime can't get anything constructive accomplished, its hairbrained humanitarian pier broke apart, every peace negotiation fails, only bringing more US bombs killing more Palestinians brings shame and disgust from the rest of the world, and with Biden's witch hunt on his opponent backfiring, only driving up Trump support, Biden's days may be over.

Speaking of which, a more personal lens has this 81-year old wretch of an imposter slipping on even a more slippery slope these days. Not just the fact that Biden keep taking his infamous spills falling over and tripping on stairs, or not knowing where to go after he leaves the microphone. His unavoidable, way too obvious mental decline is growing worse by the week, and that reality is doing him in now. With his team in panic and constant damage control desperately trying to prop him up from clear signs of worsening dementia fast kicking in, the White House has been claiming executive privilege to withhold an audio tape of Special Counsel Robert Hur's classified document interview with Biden. The interview transcript had to be altered to not make him look so senile and cognitively impaired. On CNN the Time reporter's description of Biden's mental competence was vague and elusive, unable to dodge or deny the obvious aging effects of his mental decline.

But the latest is a Tuesday June 4th Wall Street Journal piece titled "Behind Closed Doors, Biden Shows Signs of Slipping." The article cites multiple behind-the-scene close encounters this year where his undeniable senility is on full awkward display for all to see and report to WSJ. One damaging quote came from dethroned former GOP House Speaker Kevin McCarthy:

I used to meet with him when he was vice president. I'd go to his house. He's not the same person.

That is not only cognitively true, but literally, physically true as well. The president is a failed actor with attached bottom ear lobes, and the real "Big Guy" VP from before he died, is with unattached bottom ear lobes, clearly a different person.

So, with less than five months left and the world fast falling apart, their 81-year old Braindead puppet geezer has no chance at all making it to the November finish line. The moneychanger controllers would prefer having a more easily pliable, robotic braindead occupying the White House as wartime president, with war breaking out not only on three warfronts. But upheaval is erupting over this coming long hot summer at home with more than one false flag planned, one to blame Russia, another one for Iran, while activating all those domestic terrorist sleeper cells to wreak havoc on the USA home-front. I've maintained for over a year now that I don't believe there will even be an American election this year. A growing national emergency crisis in the coming months will usher in martial law to cancel the election on November 5th. This way the globalist agenda has full sway to destroy the US in the fastest way possible while engulfed in nuclear Armageddon on three world warfronts.

Let's face it, all hell's about to break loose all over this devil's dominion planet. Without a brokered six-week ceasefire in Gaza, the current White House team appears to be on life support. With Bibi's fractured coalition falling apart if a ceasefire deal is made, the Butcher's own self-interests have always been his number one priority in everything this repeated war criminal has ever done. Because his war cabinet Nazis have him by the balls, this week-old deal still hanging in limbo appears to also run its course with near zero chance of success. The only option Biden has to salvage the deal Butcher agreed to is withholding US bombs. That would be the only way that Bibi might agree to halt the war. Of course, the last time a US president threatened an Israeli prime minister with cutting off the US cash cow spigot, that US president was murdered first, before US cashflow to the Jewish State would ever stop. That's a reality check of Israel's higher paygrade per founding Rothschild City of London power that runs the world.

This stagnating, bogged down Gaza war has gone the same way as the war in Ukraine, endlessly dragging on, looking grimmer for the IDF than the Hamas fighters. Again, the US is backing another loser in yet another immoral lost cause war of attrition. And the longer it goes on, the more detrimental impact on Israel. Resourceful Hamas cheaply produces weapons on its own underground tunneled turf, using guerilla-style warfare it can outlast

Israel now flailing and failing to root out the surprisingly resilient and evasive occupation resistance. As the Palestinian civilian death toll rises to near 37,000, with graphically brutal accounts dispersed daily to the world on social media, Israel's untenable bloodbath cannot withstand the wrath of the entire world, and for that matter, neither can the US.

So what does Bibi do? He orders more airstrikes on southern Lebanon, but once again using the outlawed chemical warfare agent, the flesh burning poison white phosphorus. Tangling with this far larger, more heavily armed, stronger military force Hezbollah at Israel's northern border that already defeated the Jewish State once in a 2006 war, is a desperately dangerous Butcher-ous blunder intended to frantically drag the US into the wider war. Again, Israel is losing this war in Gaza and will immediately fold if the US actually ever grows the balls to stop shipping weapons to the IDF. This Middle East war is another no-win debacle just like Ukraine. The US keeps backing itself into the losers' corner, backing the demons on the wrong side of history, both morally and militarily. Israel is the growing pariah of the world, joined by a weakening belligerent pariah, the United States. To make matters uglier and more grotesque, Israel's bought and paid for treasonous US Congress has invited Bibi the Butcher to be their guest of honor addressing yet another joint session in the Capitol building, just like war criminal Zelensky afterglow comparison to Winston Churchill. On Saturday June 1st, the Butcher accepted, saying:

[I am] excited for the privilege to present in front of the representatives of the American people and the entire world the truth about our just war against those who wish to kill us.

The only thing that will cancel this demonic spectacle of a lauded genocidal Butcher in the Capitol Dome, is Israel cutoff from all future US weapons. A permanent ceasefire might bring him to Washington but his government would collapse before peace comes to the Middle East. Again, Satan rules this seemingly hexed earth.
