For nearly eight months, Israel still chokes off nearly all food and other vital supplies to Gaza.

Gaza needs 500 trucks of supply every day, and near-nothing is coming through. The US pier supplies 25-50 trucks per day, and everything else is closed. With irregular intervals, reports have come the past months, but never about more than some 100 or 150 trucks on a few days.

Reports about starvation are made public, and this is obviously getting worse.

Hunger is a creeper. People will survive for months on their bodily reserves and on the little food they can scrape together. But suddenly, people get under the absolute minimum in bodily assets and mass deaths will start on industrial scale.

Once erupted, hunger and disease deaths will be enormous.

I can imagine, that in a few months you will suddenly see deaths of 50,000 per week in Gaza. Ask medical experts.

Holocaust – death brought by Israel on civilians on industrial scale will erupt, if this is not reversed NOW.
