"Never before has man had such capacity to control his own environment, to end thirst and hunger, to conquer poverty and disease, to banish illiteracy and massive human misery. We have the power to make this the best generation of mankind in the history of the world-or to make it the last."

- President John F. Kennedy, September 20, 1963 speech to the UN, two months and two days before his death. [1]

Sixty years ago...

According to the official story released by the Warren Commission Report, the murder of John F. Kennedy was an achievement of one man, Lee Harvey Oswald, the lone gunman. [2]

His actions just happened to coincide with the decision by Dallas Sheriff Bill Decker, two hours before the attack on Kennedy, to order all one hundred of his deputies, "to take no part whatsoever in the security of the presidential motorcade." And Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry also gave an order to keep officers out of Dealey Plaza during the time the president was travelling through it. As he later pointed out in his book, The JFK Assassination Files, Curry was following the orders of the Secret Service. [3]

Lee Harvey Oswald could only be shooting from behind Kennedy. And yet, several individuals testified that the bullet that killed Kennedy entered from the front and exited through the back of his head! Only ten minutes before Oswald shot Kennedy from the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) a secretary in the building who knew him saw him having lunch on the second floor! [4]

Oil billionaires expecting Kennedy to pass laws which would have them spending substantial amounts of taxes from their incomes held a party the night before the assassination. Vice-President Lyndon Johnson and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover were apparently in attendance. Then a week later, a second big party was held at an oil billionaire's mansion where attendees were served champagne and were laughing apparently all the way to the bank. [5]

With these and other coincidences and realities in full display, one can come to one of two conclusions.

- 1) Lee Harvey Oswald was quite an amazing guy!
- 2) The real culprit(s) succeeded in pinning the blame exclusively on him!

As the anniversary has passed us over, we decided to commemorate the domestic event living on in infamy by looking at one researcher and two sets of evidence seldom on display when casual observers choose to talk about the death of perhaps the last president enjoying his level of high popularity.

Jacob Hornberger is a lawyer, a JFK investigator and author of two JFK related books in the last decade: The Kennedy Autopsy and An Encounter with Evil: The Abraham Zapruder Story. Hornberger brings these two books to light during this feature interview on the Global Research News Hour.
